Climate Stories Project

By selecting "I grant permission for my story to be edited and shared" and signing this form I agree to the following:

I understand that Climate Stories Project (CSP) uses recorded audio interviews and other media to highlight the influence of climate change on people and communities around the world. These recorded interviews, or excerpts of these recordings, may be edited for brevity and clarity and may be publicly available on the website climatestoriesproject.org. The edited recordings may be used for public presentations and/or publicly presented artistic pieces. The interviews and spoken material, in whole or in part, may be disseminated to the public through the press, including radio, television, newspapers, and the internet.

In order to assist CSP, I have agreed to provide audio and/or video recordings, written testimony, and personal information, including my personal experiences, remarks, incidents, dialogues, actions, and recollections, as well as any photographs and documents that I may willingly give to CSP (collectively, the Project Materials).

I attest that I have the exclusive right to submit the Project Materials.

I hereby grant to CSP and the Press:

1. The right to quote, edit, reproduce, publish, distribute, or otherwise use all or any portion of the Project Materials, and in advertising and related promotion of CSP, in all forms and in all media throughout the world and in perpetuity.
2. The right to use my name, image, and biographical data in connection with any use of the Project Materials, including as described above.

I hereby waive any right I may have to edit submitted interviews, inspect or approve the use of my name, image, biographical data, or Project Materials as incorporated into CSP, and acknowledge that I have no copyright or other rights in CSP.

I hereby release and discharge the Press, CSP, and the licensees, successors, and assigns of each, from any and all claims, demands, or causes of action that I may have against them regarding any use of the Project Materials or regarding anything contained in related advertising or promotional materials, including (but not limited to) any claims based on the right to privacy, the right to publicity, copyright, libel, defamation, or any other right.
